- Dancing for Birth (3 hours)
 - In-Person- $40
 - Dancing For Birth™ class is a body-based childbirth education dance class. Don't just learn facts that may go in one ear and out the other—practice birthing! We birth in our bodies, so we need to learn about birth with our bodies. Muscle memory helps so much during labor! Learn how to use gravity, movement and instinct to have an easier labor and birth experience. Your instructor will provide evidence-based childbirth and parenting education as you come to understand how to nurture the process of labor. Learning to connect with your body and your baby will help eliminate your fears and build confidence in your ability to give birth. This 3-hour class allows participants to move, relax, and learn in a nurturing safe space where sharing and practicing labor positions are encouraged. Pregnant participants attend solo without their birth partner. This is not a stand-alone birthing class. Participants are encouraged to attend a full birthing class such as Childbirth Express or an Understanding Birth eClass prior to attending Dancing for Birth
- Moving Together for Birth (1.5 hours)
 - In-Person- $32
 - In this body-based childbirth class, the birthing person and their supporter will learn how to work together while using gravity, movement, and instinct to promote an easier labor and birth experience. Research has shown that movement may shorten the labor process, reduce pain, and decrease the use of medical interventions. Dancing For Birth™ partner classes offers you an opportunity to practice moving for birth! We birth in our bodies, so we need to learn about birth with our bodies. Muscle memory helps so much during labor!

Together, the birthing person and their supporter learn how to tune-into the birthing body and your baby, how to create space in your pelvis for an easier birth, how to get baby into the optimal fetal position, and how to avoid back labor. Your instructor will provide evidence-based childbirth and parenting education as you come to understand how to nurture the process of labor. Connecting helps to eliminate fears and builds confidence in your ability to give birth together. This 90-minute class allows participants to move, relax, and learn in a nurturing safe space where sharing and practicing labor positions are encouraged. This is not a stand-alone birthing class. Participants are encouraged to attend a full birthing class such as Childbirth Express or an Understanding Birth eClass prior to attending Dancing for Birth
