

Resident Infection Prevention Quiz

**MUST PASS WITH 100% ACCURACY**

1. Full barrier precautions include:
  - a. Mask, sterile gloves, drape to cover area of insertion
  - b. Sterile gown, sterile gloves, large drape to cover patient
  - c. Sterile gloves, mask, cap, sterile gown, large drape to cover patient
  - d. Mask, sterile gown and gloves, large drape to cover area of insertion

2. Risk Factors for CLABSI include:
  - a. Multiple lumens
  - b. Extended duration of indwelling catheterization
  - c. Femoral site of insertion
  - d. All of the above

3. Urinary catheters should be:
  - a. Monitored on a daily basis for need
  - b. Used for urinary retention/obstruction, stage III/IV pressure ulcers for incontinent patients, palliative care
  - c. Inserted with aseptic technique
  - d. All of the above
  - e. B and C only

4. Patients suspected of C. difficile should wait for test results before being isolated?
  - a. True
  - b. False

5. Inova Fairfax Medical Campus has an Antibiotic stewardship program which restricts the use of certain antimicrobials to Infectious Diseases and Critical Care Services.
  - a. True
  - b. False

---

PRINT NAME

---

DATE

---

SIGNATURE