

Family Medicine Outpatient Advanced Elective

Family Medicine Outpatient Advanced Elective-Fairfax Family Practice (MEDI-41038)
Preceptor:	Dr. Margie Hermes	Phone #:	703-391-2020
Department:	Family Medicine & Population Health	Max Enrollment:	1
Time Period(s):	1,2,3	Time:
Location:	3650 Joseph Siewick Dr., Suite #400, Fairfax, VA 22033
Objectives and Evaluation
Dr. Sam Jones - Program Director - 703-391-2020 Dr. Margie Hermes - Medical Student Coordinator - 703-391-2020 Hours per Week - 40 hrs/week Lectures/Seminars - Yes Outpatient - Yes Night Call - No Weekends - No Exam required - No This fourth year Family Medicine Elective's objective is to further expose the student to the breadth of Family Medicine, as well as having the student sample what our residency program entails. Course approval must be obtained from Dr. Hermes. Students will see adult, children, and pregnant patients. Emphasis in addition to proper diagnosis and plan of care development is on health maintenance and prevention. Students will participate in both well and sick visits. Students will have the opportunity to observe a variety of office procedures performed by a family physician. Evaluation: The standard VCU 4th Year Elective evaluation form will be used. Suggested reading: Slone, P.D., Slatt, L.M., Ebell, M.H., Jacques, L.B., 2002. Essentials of Family Medicine. 4th Edition. PA: Lippincott Williams and Wilkins
Special Instructions/Additional Information
Call Carol Lauffenburger at 703-391-2020 for more information or to register for this elective prior to applying in VSAS.			